PENTECOSTAL PASTORAL LETTER

26 "When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father—the Spirit of truth who goes out from the Father—he will testify about me. 27 And you also must testify, for you have been with me from the beginning.
"John 15:26-27 (NIV)

My beloved family in faith, my brothers and sisters in Millian, UMChurch. For us, the children of God, this time of Pentecost is the birth of the church. With the coming of the Holy Spirit, the Church that we know begins to grow, the community of faith that deals with sharing the good news of the gospel of the kingdom of God through Jesus Christ. Our mission is to make disciples of our Lord Jesus Christ throughout the world.

We are facing challenges like any other church in the denomination and the country, but clearly and intentionally we have decided against all the expectations and rumors to NOT DIE, we decided to survive under the direction of the Holy Spirit. And this is worth celebrating; in fact, we celebrated it on Easter Sunday. The pastor, the leadership and the congregation affirmed this decision. So if you hear people declaring that we are not going to survive, tell them clearly that it is not true, that God takes us by the hand in new ways, and we decided to believe Him.

We continue to use the protocols (discipline of the United Methodist Church) established to make our decisions. We remain true to our Wesleyan tradition.

We can go back at least 40 years and identify the genesis of the decline in the participation of people in Sunday services; It's more obvious in recent years. (see graphic in this same edition of the monthly church newsletter)

Aware of that situation, we have sought and received support from the conference at different times in the persons of Christie Latona, Rev. Dr. Rodney Smothers, and our superintendent Rev. Dr. Gerald Green.

Currently, the financial situation has caught our attention; we ended 2017 with 9k in deficit. This has led us to make practical decisions in this area, as has been opportunely shared by Finance President Dwayne Weigle following my instructions, such as:

1. Eliminate the extended practice of offering for restricted funds and invite members to tithe for general fund.
2. End the practice of paying at least half of the apportonmets to the conference, paying only when we can do it. This decision Will be made each month, by the pastor and the finance president with the treasurer's advice.
3. Reexamine the work of our maintenance manager at Church, considering in this effort our school and the different Churches that rent our space and do it in a shared manner.
4. Reexamine our music program.
5. Investigate different possibilities of selling properties like our van and others (they are options, NOT DECIDED)
6. Search for funding in the conference and other organizations in the denomination to cover the costs related to our ministry, that is, the mission of the Church.

7. Make a real budget in which the ministries that we currently have as summer Bible school (VBS), food ministry, youth, fall festival, among others, are considered.

I am very excited about this process where we walk led by the Holy Spirit. Therefore, I invite you to pray without rest, feeding our faith and not our fears (which I also understand). Let's not listen to the rumors or feed them. Ask your pastor, or leaders in the church.

The word of God is clear: "But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well." Matthew 6:33 (NIV)

My dear family, I want to emphasize that on Pentecost is when the Holy Spirit seizes the people of God, fulfilling the promise made by Jesus. I firmly believe that this promise is fulfilled in us, therefore we can be the church that we must be according to the will of God in this new stage, a new era. My personal vision is that in this church the diversity that surrounds us is reflected and that it is already part of us. Our perfection is reflected in our ability to love one another regardless of the color of our skin or the language we speak, and in the capacity to seat all of us at the Lord's table as one family without excluding anyone.

Let us reflect our faith in our way of giving our promises, offerings and tithes; let us be faithful and not stop giving, remembering all the blessings we are receiving.

God is with us, and if He is with us, who is against us?

Your pastor who loves you dearly

CARTA PASTORAL DE PENTECOSTÉS

26 »Cuando venga el Consolador, que yo les enviaré de parte del Padre, el Espíritu de verdad que procede del Padre, él testificará acerca de mí.
27 Y también ustedes darán testimonio porque han estado conmigo desde el principio.

Mi querida familia en la fe, mis hermanos y hermanas en la iglesia de Millian, UMC. Para nosotros los hijos de Dios esta época de pentecostés es el nacimiento de la iglesia. Con la venida del Espíritu Santo comienza a crecer la Iglesia que conocemos, la comunidad de fe que se ocupa de compartir las buenas nuevas del evangelio del reino de Dios a través de Jesucristo. Nuestra misión es hacer discípulos de nuestro Señor Jesucristo en todo el mundo.

Estamos enfrentando retos como cualquier otra iglesia en la denominación y el país, pero de manera clara e intencional hemos decidido en contra de todas las expectativas y rumores a NO MORIR, decidimos sobrevivir bajo la dirección del Espíritu Santo. Y eso es digno de celebrar; de hecho lo celebramos el domingo de resurrección. El pastor, el liderazgo y la congregación afirmaron esta decisión. Así que si escuchan personas declarando que no vamos a sobrevivir, díganles claramente que no es cierto, que Dios nos lleva de la mano en nuevos caminos, y decidimos creerle a El.

Continuamos usando los protocolos (disciplina de la Iglesia Metodista Unida) establecidos para tomar nuestras decisiones. Nos mantenemos fieles a nuestra tradición wesleyana.

Podemos remontarnos por lo menos 40 años atrás e identificar el génesis del descenso en la participación de la gente en los cultos dominicales; es mas obvio los últimos años. (ver grafica en este misma edición del periódico mensual de la iglesia)

Conscientes de esa situación hemos buscado y recibido apoyo de parte de la conferencia en las personas de Christie Latona, Rev. Dr. Rodney Smothers, y nuestro superintendente Rev. Dr. Gerald Green. En diferentes momentos.

Actualmente, la situación financiera ha llamado nuestra atención, terminamos el 2017 con 9k en contra. Lo cual nos ha llevado a tomar decisiones practicas en esta área, como lo ha compartido oportunamente el presidente de finanzas Dwayne Weigle siguiendo mis indicaciones, tales como:

1. Eliminar la practica extendida de dar ofrenda para fondos restringidos e invitando a que los miembros ofrenden para fondo general.
2. Terminar la practica de pagar por lo menos la mitad de las contribuciones a la conferencia. Pagando solamente cuando podamos hacerlo, tomando la decisión cada mes el pastor, el presidente de finanzas con el consejo de la tesorera.
3. Reexaminar el trabajo de nuestro encargado de mantenimiento en la Iglesia, considerando en este esfuerzo nuestra escuela y las Iglesias que rentan nuestro espacio para hacerlo de manera compartida
4. Reexaminar nuestro programa de música.
5. Investigar diferentes posibidades de vender propiedades como nuestra camioneta y otras (son opciones, NO SE HA DECIDIDO)
6. Búsqueda de financiamiento en la conferencia y otras organizaciones en la denominación para cubrir los costos relacionados a nuestros ministerio, es decir la misión de la Iglesia.
7. Realizar un presupuesto real donde estén considerados nuestros ministerios que actualmente tenemos como escuela bíblica de verano (VBS), el ministerio de comida, jóvenes, festival de otoño, entre otros.

Estoy muy emocionado con este proceso donde caminamos dirigidos por el Espíritu Santo; por lo tanto, les invito a que oremos sin descansar alimentando nuestra fe y no nuestros miedos (que también los entiendo). No tengamos oídos atentos a los rumores ni los alimentemos. Pregunten a su pastor, o a los lideres en la iglesia.

"Reaching and building up ALL people for CHRIST".

La palabra de Dios es clara "Pero busquemos primero Su reino y Su justicia y todas estas cosas les serán añadidas – las que necesitamos-" (Mateo 6:33 NBLH)

Mi querida familia quiero enfatizar que en pentecostés es cuando el Espíritu Santo apodera al pueblo de Dios, cumpliéndose la promesa hecha por Jesús. Yo creo firmemente que esta promesa se cumple en nosotros, por lo tanto podemos ser la iglesia que debemos ser de acuerdo a la voluntad de Dios en esta nueva etapa, una nueva era. Mi visión personal es que en esta iglesia sea reflejada la diversidad que nos rodea y que ya es parte de nosotros, donde nuestra perfección se ve reflejada en la capacidad que tenemos de amarnos los unos a los otros sin importar el color de nuestra piel ni el lenguaje que hablamos. En la capacidad de sentarnos todos a la mesa del Señor como una sola familia sin excluir a nadie.

Reflejemos nuestra fe en nuestra manera de dar nuestras promesas, ofrendas y diezmos; seamos fieles y no dejemos de dar, recordando todas las bendiciones que estamos recibiendo.

Dios es con nosotros, y si El es con nosotros, ¿quien en nuestra contra?

Su pastor que les ama entrañablemente

Rev. Dr. Miguel A. Balderas.

STEPHEN MINISTER RECRUITMENT

The Bible makes it clear that every Christian is gifted for ministry and is called to use his or her gifts in service to God and others.

Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common god. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each individually just as the Spirit chooses.

1 Corinthians 12:4-11 NRSV

Since it is God who gifts Christians for ministry and calls them to it, it is appropriate for the church to recognize the ministry of lay people and to receive their ministry gladly.

Like good stewards of the manifold grace of God, serve one another with whatever gifts each of you has received. Whoever speaks must do so as one speaking the very words of God; whoever serves must do so with the strength that God supplies, so that God may be glorified in all things through Jesus Christ. To him belong the glory and the power forever and ever. Amen

1 Peter 4:10-11 NRSV

Christians are called to specific, focused ministries. The Spirit gives different gifts to different people. Their gifts and God's calling point them toward some areas of service and away from others. Stephen Ministry fits these characteristics. It is one of these focused ministries, providing discernment, training, ministry assignments, and ongoing support and accountability in Supervision Groups.

A part of recruiting is helping members decide whether their gifts and calling point to Stephen Ministry or some other ministry. Paul strongly points out that one set of gifts is not any better than any other. It is a mistake, however, for a person to try to do a ministry for which his or her gifts don't fit. There is no reason to feel bad if your gifts don't fit into Stephen Ministry. If you're Spirit given gifts do align with serving in a high-commitment, high-reward ministry, Stephen Ministry may be the place for you.

You may want to contemplate some of the following questions to see if Stephen Ministry is right for you.

* Do you get joy and satisfaction from participating in a meaningful ministry and of serving Jesus?

* Would you enjoy friendship and support of the Christian community that develop in training and supervision?

* Would you enjoy personal growth through the training, service, and supervision?

* Would you enjoy enhanced relationships with family, friends, co-workers, and others?

* Would you enjoy greater interpersonal relationship skills that prove valuable at work and in other activities?

* Does increased faith in God, dedication to Jesus, and enjoyment of your religious life appeal to you?

If you answered yes to any or all of these questions, Stephen Ministry could be place where your gifts will not only benefit others, but where they will flourish and grow as you serve God and others

Please read this article a second time and take five minutes pray about it. Pray for yourself and pray for the other members of our congregation that you feel would make a good Stephen Minister. The next step is to contact a Stephen Leader to let the know that you would like to become a Stephen Minister.

STEPHEN MINISTRY

NOW WHAT is God's word calling us to do?

The Holy Spirit can be disruptive. Church historian Rosemary Radford Ruether says that the church must be organized to do two things: to pass on the tradition from one generation to another and to be open to the winds of the Holy Spirit by which the tradition comes alive in each generation. Sometimes the Holy Spirit has a hard time getting through our stubborn desire to stay the way we are.

Where is the Holy Spirit trying to break through traditions that have become rock hard?

How do we continue to pass on the traditions from one generation to another while also being open to the Spirit that brings the tradition alive?

-From "Homiletical Perspective, "Barbara K Lundblad

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE MOVED BY SPIRIT TODAY?

[Acts 10:44-48] is an important text for the church today. Not only do the wounds of exclusion run deep in our culture and in the church; the realities of uncrossed boundaries still exist. Neither society nor the church has overcome racism, classism, ageism, nationalism, heterosexism, and other prejudices. We continue to propagate segregation in many forms as we hold firm to the visible and invisible boundaries between "us" and "them."

Reflecting on the outpouring of the Holy Spirit to the Gentiles, can we imagine what the Spirit might do with relations between people of different races? Is it possible to imagine the Christian community embracing the full participation and leadership of women and men, young and old, poor and wealthy, straight and gay, capitalist and socialist, and so on? Can we imagine any boundaries so rigid as to be impassable by the Holy Spirit?.

Peter and Cornelius were given visions to see the world differently.

 Who among us today are seeing visions of the expanding scope of God's grace?

 Are there voices, perhaps from the margins, that have been empowered by the Holy Spirit in ways that challenge the boundaries of prejudice and exclusion?

 Will the church be the astonished "circumcised" ones who are astounded at what the Holy Spirit might do?

We should be careful preaching these stories in the church. Those who are hearing the voice of God, the young who have visions and the old who dream dreams (Acts 2:17, Joel 2:28), might just be empowered to speak truth, share their visions, tell of their dreams. Or perhaps if we do preach these words, we should be prepared to be led to the threshold to cross a boundary.

PRESCHOOL NEWS

The 2017-2018 school year has come to an end. This has been a successful year full of growth and expansion. We were able to continue to honor many of the Millian traditions while at the same time beginning new traditions and programs. The community seems to be excited about what we are doing at Millian and this year we were at maximum capacity, filling all of our classes, and maintaining a waiting list throughout the year.

Some of the new programs added this year included a mini International Day, a children lead Nativity program and a Spring Fair. The programs were a great success and received well by the community. One of the newest programs that we have started as a result of community requests, is our Millian Summer Camp! The camp will run throughout the month of June and is open to children ages two and a half years old to five years old. Our camp focus is the great outdoors and will allow for discovery and exploration of nature. In addition, the camp will offer activities ranging from cooking, to arts and crafts to days filled with water play.

We were able to have such a great year because of the hard work and dedication of a wonderful team. I am honored to have the opportunity to work with such amazing and talented teachers and to be surrounded by a warm, dedicated and inspirational community.

We thank everyone who had a part in making this such a special year and we look forward to the 2018-2019 school year!

MILLIAN'S DETERIORATING FINANCIAL CONDITION

Millian Memorial
Finance Committee

It finally happened! On Monday, April 23, Brenda Watson (who pays our bills) notified me that the Sunday offering was insufficient to enable us to meet payroll for the end of April. Only by "borrowing" pledge funds intended for May were we able to get by.

This situation sharply illustrates the continuing decline in our church's financial position. The key facts are that our routine operating expenses remain relatively constant—in excess of $28 thousand per month for 2017 and 2018 so far—while pledge giving and other sources of income have declined from $28 thousand per month in 2017 to $25,800 so far in 2018.

Where do we find the funds to cover the gap between operating expenses and income? The reality is that we "borrow" donations to "Restricted Funds," such as Second Mile Giving and the Building Fund, to help meet normal operating expenses. This practice helps keep us solvent in the short term, but is unsatisfactory over the longer term. Thus, the Pastor and the Finance Committee, in coordination with the Church Council, is considering these steps to restore Millian's financial health:

--Eliminate, to the extent practicable, restricted fund accounts to focus members' giving towards meeting operating needs.

--End, for at least the rest of 2018, our current practice of paying one-half of our assigned apportionments each month. We would resume paying some amount of our apportionments when affordable.

--Reassess how we procure custodial services for Millian, its Preschool, and our tenant churches with an eye towards reducing Millian's cost of such services.

--Reassess the music program.

--Investigate whether or not Millian should sell its van, based upon its value and use.

--Seek grant funds to help pay mission-related costs such as our food pantry.

I expect to address and expand on these and other topics over the coming months both in stewardship moments in church the first Sunday of each month and in future newsletter articles.
