STEWARDSHIP

We have been watching videos about stewardship given by Pastor Adam Hamilton, and he has reminded us of stewardship, which is not only about collecting money, but also about discipleship. Let's recall some of the key points we've seen in these videos:

- * An economic crisis is also a crisis of faith.
- * The most potent threat we face today is fear.
- * As Christians, our credo or trust is in God. The Apostle's Creed begins, "I believe (credo) in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth"
- * An economic crisis is a spiritual issue stemming from at least five of the seven deadly sins: gluttony, greed, sloth, envy, and pride.
- * We live in a world that encourages us to live beyond our means rather than be good stewards of our God-given resources.
- * We are affected socially and spiritually by two "illnesses", oppressing conditions: Affluenza and credit-it is. Affluenza is the constant need for more and bigger and better stuff. Credit-itis is the idea that we can have something now and pay for it later, which exploits our lack of self-discipline and allows us to feed our affluenza.

* As we allow Christ to work in us, seeking first his kingdom and striving to do his will, we begin to sense a higher calling to simplicity, faithfulness, and generosity.

* Many of us have a bit of the prodigal son in us: We have the habits of squandering and wasting money.

* Society tells us that our life purpose is to consume; the Bible tells us that our life purpose is to love God and to love our neighbors as ourselves. Our money and possessions should be devoted to helping us fulfill this calling.

* When we do our financial plans: Pay your tithe and offering first.

* Like the apostle Paul, we can learn to be content in whatever circumstances we may find ourselves. Four keys to contentment can help us to do it:

-Remember that it could be worse.

-Ask yourself, "How long will this me happy?"

-Develop a grateful heart.

-Ask yourself, "Where does my soul find true satisfaction?"

* Five steps can help us to simplify our lives:

-Reduce your consumption and live below your means.

-Before making a purchase, ask yourself why you need it and want it.

-Use something up before buying something new,

-Plan low-cost entertainment that enriches.

-Consider major changes that would allow you to simplify your life.

* There are two "voices" that war against our God-given impulse toward generosity: fear and self-gratification. As we put our faith in Jesus Christ and grow spirituality, we silence these voices and become more and more generous.

* A central theological foundation for generosity is this: Life is a gift, and everything belongs to God.

* From the earliest biblical times, the primary way people worshipped God was building an altar and offering the fruit of their labors upon it to God. In

Old Testament times, a gift offered to God was called the first fruits or the tithe, and it equaled one-tenth of one's flocks or crops or income.

God bless you.

Your pastor,

Pastor Miguel Balderas

OUTREACH NEWS

You are a loving, generous congregation and working with you makes our outreach to the community an exciting adventure. You brought us lots of quality clothing, many new items. We had beautiful old glassware donated by a neighbor that was sold at attractive prices. Workers in the area added for the first time a donation box in the clothing area. Surprisingly there was a total of $87.15 received for sales and donations. We will return to giving all items away in November to food pantry patrons. We are grateful for your extreme generosity! Special thanks to Janet Coffelt, Carolyn Goldman and Barbara Lo for coordinating the clothing area and sale items.

The Second Saturday in October is the Fall Festival and we worked with Nancy Gray to make it a spectacular event for the community. Outreach coordinated the following activities: MedStar Montgomery free flu shots, Cookie decorations, and spider pops by Ranudi and Isan Kadithuwokku and Sharon Perera; exotic face painting by Bambi Blackwell and the greatest slime in Aspen Hill by Erin and Colleen Kelly, graduates of our pre-school. They all were very professional and worked non-stop during the day even though Erin and Sharon were too young for SSL hours. Other activities included pumpkin decoration, games, UMW bake and jewelry sale, UMM grilled hamburgers and hot dogs and more.

FOOD PANTRY. The food pantry served seventy families reaching 171 adults and 146 children, totaling 317 persons. Thanks to the Middle & High School Sunday School class for set-up.

COMMUNITY MINISTRIES volunteers provided information on the Kasey Health Clinic and health and nutrition issues in Spanish and English.

MUM'S (Mid-County United Ministries) provided food from our parking lot October 1.

SMART SACKS under the leadership of Nancy Gray provided 192 families at Wheaton Woods making a total of outreach to 384 families this school year. Together Smart Sacks and the food pantry has reached 521 families this school year.

FRESH BREAD and SPIRITUAL NOURISHMENT made apple pull apart bread and explored the topic of being real and transformative love from the story of the story of the Velveteen Rabbit. The next meeting will be November 18.

NOVEMBER is the MONTH of THANKSGIVING however, we proudly proclaim that Millian does not wait for this season to think of our neighbors who need assistance. We will provide Thanksgiving Food. We will work again with Linkages to Learning to do the screening and delivery. We do not have data on families that come to the food pantry. Some food bags are reserved for Millian's discretion. Let us know if there are families you would like to receive Thanksgiving Food. We will immediately start our outreach and expand it to groups that are using our facility to also contribute.

We encourage you to continue support for the food pantry. We are buying more food. Food purchases were more than $600 in October and 70 bags of food were received by our neighbors the 2nd Saturday. We prepare 60 bags of food per month. A contribution of about $13.00 will purchase a bag of food. Please note on your check, "Food Pantry". We'll put a display in the narthex to increase your awareness of what the bag is like. Again, we thank you for your donations of food and funds.

Sunday, January 7th - Three Kings Day / Epiphany

Dearest Millian Family:

Words are inadequate to express our thanks for your prayers and support as our son, John Lee Lillibridge IV, recovers from his brain tumor removal. All of you made a world of difference in our son's recuperation!

We especially want to thank those of you that we knew were part of the prayer vigil on the day of his surgery (Sept. 8, 2017): Jann Dalrymple, for organizing the vigil and her prayers, as well as Gene Pearson, Carol Russell, Marcella Welch, Nancy van der Walde, Chuck Thompson, Emelia Annum, Paul and Bert Nelson, Dawn and John Kelley, Jeanne Roesch, Carolyn and Corrine Goldman, Pierre and Justine Moundou, Linda May, Mary Jo and Bob Drake, Darlene Bowles, Barbara Smith, Sheila Hopkins, Marguerite Eimer, Rev. Alice Ford, and Rev. Miguel Balderas. We could not ask for a more faithful, faith-filled Christian family.

The prayers have been answered with joy and thanksgiving. Six weeks after the surgery, John Lee is able to return to Detroit to assess his readiness to return to graduate school. The next step will be meeting with the oncologists at NIH the week after Thanksgiving, when we expect them to recommend a follow-up treatment plan to maximize chances the tumor will not return. Praise God for his healing power!

With love and gratitude galore,

The entire Lillibridge/Stathoplos family

SENIORS NEWS

The Millian Seniors met on the first and third Thursdays of October. We are in the process of collecting names and money for those who will attend our annual Thanksgiving brunch at Mountain Gate in Thurmout. The brunch will be on Thursday, November 16th (one week before Thanksgiving) at 11 a.m. Our meetings are open to all who admit to being a "senior." Bring a sandwich for lunch with you. Coffee, hot water for tea, and dessert are provided. We meet at 11 a.m. in the chapel.

SAVE THE DATE DEC. 4, 2017

The United Methodist Women invite you attend a Christmas Brunch on Dec. 4th at 10:30 a.m. The fare will be light as we are planning a continental menu of muffins, coffee cakes, Edith's goodies, fruit, coffee and tea. I hope your mouth is watering already.

Our program will discover who the women were that witnessed the miraculous event of the coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ. Come and hear about these often overlooked people who were amazed, distressed and awed by all that they heard and saw. The program is entitled, "Women of the Manger".

We look forward to seeing you on Dec. 4 at 10:30.

MAYORDOMÍA

Hemos estado viendo videos sobre mayordomía dados por el pastor Adam Hamilton, y nos ha recordado lo que implica la mayordomía, que no tan solo es para recoger dinero, sino que está ligado al disciplinado.

Recordemos algunos de los puntos clave que hemos visto en estos videos:

- Una crisis económica también es una crisis de fe.
- La amenaza más potente a la que nos enfrentamos hoy es el miedo.
- Como cristianos, nuestro credo o confianza está en Dios. El Credo de los Apóstoles comienza, "Creo (credo) en Dios Padre Todopoderoso, creador del cielo y la tierra"
- Una crisis económica es un problema espiritual que surge de al menos cinco de los siete pecados capitales: glotonería, codicia, pereza, envidia y orgullo.
- Vivimos en un mundo que nos alienta a vivir más allá de nuestros medios en lugar de ser buenos administradores de nuestros recursos dados por Dios.
- Nos afectan social y espiritualmente por dos "enfermedades" condiciones opresoras: la afluencia y el crédito: es. La afluencia es la necesidad constante de más y mejores cosas. Crédito: es la idea de que podemos tener algo ahora y pagar más tarde, lo que explota nuestra falta de autodisciplina y nos permite alimentar nuestra opulencia.

- Mientras permitimos que Cristo trabaje en nosotros, buscando primero su reino y esforzándose por hacer su voluntad, comenzamos a sentir un llamado superior a la simplicidad, la fidelidad y la generosidad.

- Muchos de nosotros tenemos un poco del hijo pródigo en nosotros: tenemos hábitos de despilfarro y desperdiciando el dinero.

- La sociedad nos dice que nuestro propósito de vida es consumir; la Biblia nos dice que nuestro propósito de vida es amar a Dios y amar a nuestro prójimo como a nosotros mismos. Nuestro dinero y posesiones deben dedicarse a ayudarnos a cumplir este llamado.

- Cuando hagamos nuestros planes financieros: pague su diezmo y ofrenda primero.

- Al igual que el apóstol Pablo, podemos aprender a contentarnos en cualquier circunstancia que podamos encontrar. Cuatro claves para la satisfacción pueden ayudarnos a hacerlo:

- o Recuerda que podría ser peor.

- o Pregúntate: "¿Cuánto tiempo me alegrará esto?"

- o Desarrolle un corazón agradecido.

- o Pregúntate: "¿Dónde encuentra mi alma verdadera satisfacción?"

- Cinco pasos pueden ayudarnos a simplificar nuestras vidas: o Reduzca su consumo y viva por debajo de sus medios.

- o Antes de realizar una compra, pregúntese por qué la necesita y la desea.

- o Termine algo antes de comprar algo nuevo,

- o Planifique entretenimiento de bajo costo que enriquezca.

- o Considere cambios importantes que le permitirán simplificar su vida.

- Hay dos "voces" que combaten contra nuestro impulso dado por Dios a la generosidad: miedo y autocomplacencia. Al poner nuestra fe en Jesucristo y crecer en espiritualidad, silenciamos estas voces y nos hacemos cada vez más generosos.

- Una base teológica central para la generosidad es esta: la vida es un don y todo pertenece a Dios.

- Desde los primeros tiempos bíblicos, la forma primaria en que las personas adoraban a Dios era la construcción y el altar y ofrecían el fruto de sus labores a Dios. En los tiempos del Antiguo Testamento, un regalo ofrecido a Dios se llamaba los primeros frutos o el diezmo, y equivalía a una décima parte de sus rebaños o cosechas o ingresos.

Dios los bendiga, su pastor!

Rev. Dr. Miguel A. Balderas
